

Ramada Bali Sunset Road Kuta Appoints New General Manager

Anastasia Damayanti appointed as General Manager

Bali, Indonesia, 6 November 2017 – Anastasia Damayanti (Maya) has been appointed the new General Manager of Ramada Bali Sunset Road Kuta. In this role, she will be primarily responsible for managing the resort operations and maintaining the excellent service that is synonymous with the Ramada brand to create indelible memories for guests.

The Pematangsiantar-born Maya brings to Ramada Bali Sunset Road a wealth of experience with a career that spans 27 years in the hospitality industry across various international brands. Her most recent appointment was General Manager at Ibis Jakarta Mangga Dua. Prior to her last appointment, Maya has also held leadership roles in Novotel Banjarmasin Airport and Novotel Bangka Golf & Convention Centre, Novotel Balikpapan and Pullman Bali Legian Nirwana.

“I am excited to lead the team at Ramada Bali Sunset Road Kuta and continue to deliver the personalised and memorable experiences that guests have come to expect from our Ramada hotel,” said Maya.

“Bali is a competitive market and it is important for the team to keep up their excellent service while setting new standards that will surprise and delight guests on their future visits,” continued Maya.

Ramada Bali Sunset Road is a four-star resort located along the popular Sunset Road. The resort will celebrate its second anniversary on 15 December 2017 this year.

For more media information, please contact:

Iqbal Febian Tirtowiguno

Asst. Marketing Communications Manager

Ramada Bali Sunset Road Kuta

T: +62 361 846 8500

M: +62 8388 705 600

marcom@ramadabalisunsetroad.com

Daniel Tony Wibowo

Director of Sales & Marketing

Ramada Bali Sunset Road Kuta

T: +62 361 846 8500

M: +62 8132 500 6111

dosm@ramadabalisunsetroad.com

About Ramada Bali Sunset Road Kuta

Located on the lively Sunset Road shopping strip in downtown Kuta is the four-star Ramada Bali Sunset Road Kuta. The 271-room resort is a hidden gem that blends modern comforts along with the feel of a coastal Balinese resort. Guests are invited to spend the day basking in the sun by the rooftop pool or enjoy a relaxing massage at Sunset Spa. The resort offers authentic Indonesian dishes and Asian fusion cuisine at Angsoka restaurant and an extensive range of cocktails at the poolside bar. The sights of Kuta, Seminyak and Legian along with its bustling shops, cultural stops and coastal waters are within easy reach and the resort is 15 minutes' from Ngurah Rai International Airport.

About Ramada

Part of Wyndham Hotel Group, Ramada Worldwide® is a global chain of 840 midscale and upscale hotels. Most properties offer a wide-array of services and amenities, including but not limited to high-speed wireless internet access, on-site restaurants, lounges, room service, concierge service, meeting and banquet facilities and business centres. Properties also offer travellers the opportunity to earn and redeem points through Wyndham Rewards®, the brand's guest loyalty program, which can be joined for free at www.wyndhamrewards.com. The brand celebrated its 60th anniversary in 2014.

Each Ramada hotel is independently owned and operated, except for certain Ramada hotels outside of the U.S. which are managed by an affiliate. Ramada Worldwide is a subsidiary of Wyndham Hotel Group and parent company Wyndham Worldwide Corporation (NYSE: WYN). Reservations and information are available by visiting www.ramada.com.